

U.D.C. 323.269.3(477)

SVYSTOVYCH

Stepan M.,

the Department of History and Archeology of Slaves of the Institute of historical education of the National Pedagogical Dragomanov University
(a city of Kyiv)

THE CONCEPT OF HISTIRICAL RESEARCH OF CIVIL MOVEMENT IN SOVIET UKRAINE IN MODERN SCIENTIFIC DISCOURSE

Summary

The article analyzes the doctrinal principles of the system of public associations functioning in Soviet Ukraine in 20–30-ies years of XX century, this work gives a system of these associations, turns out their place in the political system of the Soviet state. Investigates the participation of NGOs in the Ukrainian SSR socio-economic transformation of the Bolshevik regime.

In the light of current methodological and conceptual approaches is analyzed the development of the Bolshevik doctrine using NGOs to implement state-building of the proletarian dictatorship in the 20's – early 30-ies years of XX century.

Keywords: NGO, political system, class and trade unions, voluntary society, the socialist experiment.