

U.D.C. 34.341.342

PILIPCHUK

Oksana O.,

Ph.D., senior lecturer in «Management of transportation processes» department of the State Economic-Technological University of Transport, pilipchuk_o@mail.ru (Kyiv).

CREATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF KYIV LEGAL SOCIETY (1876-1919)

Summary

Publishing activity of Kyiv legal society was very successful. It should be noted, more or less depth study specific issues of the Society, which conducted its members. It was informative work that greatly expanded and deepened source base in the history of the Company. It was informative work that considerably extended a source base of individual events in the history of the Society. Among them, first of all, we must note study of O. F.Kistyakovsky, which referred to meaning and goals of legal societies in legal life of the country and their relation to judicial reform.

Activities united around the "Works" of legal scholars, that is embodied in various publications, legal and scientific content enjoyed great respect in the world. Their works correspond to the spirit of the time, indicated by intense appeal to the scientific knowledge, and entering the national legal thought to the next stage of development, at the end of XIX - early XX cent. characterized by the appearance of new trends and currents occurrence in the creative field of a new generation of scientists and lawyers.

Keywords: legal societies, Kyiv university, science, jurisprudence.