

U.D.C. 929(477),16”:070,,1910/1913”

Kotsur Halyna H.,
PhD,
docent,
Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv
archivy@ukr.net
(Kyiv)

HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL PUBLICATIONS OF HISTORY OF THE COSSACKS ON THE PAGES OF «DNIPRO WAVES» (1910-1913)

Summary

The article deals with the Ukrainian magazine «Dnipro waves», which was published in Katerynoslav in 1910-1913. Illustrated weekly magazine played an important role in the national revival of the Ukrainian nation in the preservation of its national memory.

«Dnipro waves» printed on their pages materials about Ukrainian history, including history of Cossacks Sich. In the center of profound historical publications, popular science essays, literary works, chronicles, notes, information communications, book reviews is the theme of Zaporozhian Cossacks. There On the pages of «Dnipro waves» are materials on the establishment of Zaporozka Sich, Ukrainian colonization of the region, economic development, winterers, trade, Cossack life.

The article deals with the authors' vision on publications of military and administrative structure o Zaporozka Sich, Cossack elections, relations with neighboring countries. A separate part of the materials applies to Cossack religiosity, their charitable activities. It is served the unique data on the Samara monastery, Cossack Cathedral in Novomoskovsk, Church of St. George in Petrykivka, Cossack icons and more. A large array of materials is dedicated to famous figures of Zaporozhian past.

The authors of historical and biographical publications of history of the Cossacks were often V. Bidnov, D. Doroshenko, Ja. Novytsky, D.Yavornytsky and others. A number of scientific studies were prepared by lesser-known ethnographers and just amateurs in national history. Legends and stories of glorious Cossacks complete the material of memories of old residents about Cossacks.

In the center of historical and biographical publications are as ordinary Cossacks also Cossack officers. The most complete is shown the figure of the last ataman of Zaporozhian Sich P. Kalnyshevsky.

Valuable for modern scientists are articles about researchers of Zaporozhian Sich, informational materials about researchers of Cossacks, Museum after O. M. Pol' in Katerynoslav and more.

The journal «Dnipro waves» played an important role in the national and cultural revival of Ukraine in the early twentieth century. It serves those important historical source, which hasn't lost its importance now, because today, with its columns can draw on the information about past, knowledge of which is so important for today's Ukraine.

Key words: «Dnipro waves», an illustrated weekly magazine, Zaporozhian Cossacks, Zaporizhzhian Sich, P. Kalnyshevsky.