

The procedure of reviewing manuscripts of articles submitted to the editorial electronic scientific journal "History of Science and Biographical Study"

All articles submitted to the Editorial Board sent to an independent review.

1. A manuscript of research paper look through by Executive Secretary for compliance profile publications, basic design requirements approved by the Editorial Board.

2. The authors receive information about receipt of the articles and further change its status by email.

3. Electronic scientific journals "Science and Biographical Study" does not submit the articles:

- if they include previously published material;
- if they don't meet the guidelines for authors;
- if authors don't correct the comments of reviewers.

4. The Executive Secretary sends the article to one or two reviewers if necessary. By reviewing manuscripts of articles involve as members of the Editorial Board of the journal and scientists of other institutions who have professional knowledge or experience in a particular scientific area.

5. The period of review of the articles – from 15 to 30 days.

6. Data of article submitting – a data of returning a corrected article to the Editor Broad.

7. If there are negative reviews of the article manuscript or in its corrected version Editorial Board rejected the article reporting author on the reasons for that decision. The article rejected by reviewer don't review again.

8. After deciding on admission the article to the editorial electronic scientific journal "History of Science and Biographical Study" the Executive Secretary informs the author about the possible timing of the next release

9. Priority inclusion of the articles to the journal is determined by the date of their receipt to the editor. The articles concerning particular actual problems of science and those that contain fundamentally new information may be published out of turn.

10. The reviews store in the editor at least 5 years. The copies of the comments can sent to the Ministry of Science and Education of Ukraine if there is a request to the editor.

11. Editorial Board of electronic scientific journal "History of Science and Biographical Study" follows the guidelines of publication ethics adopted by the international community, particularly reflected in the recommendations of the Committee on the Ethics of Scientific Publications (Committee on Publication (COPE) and also takes into account the experience of reputable international journals and publishing houses.

12. Each member of the Editorial Board, author, reviewer are required follow the ethical standards, rules and regulations to prevent unfair practices of publication

(plagiarism, presenting false data, etc.), to provide high quality research papers and recognize scientific results obtained by the author. Maintain ethics of the scientific publications contributes to copyright intellectual property, increase of quality of journal and avoid the possibility of misuse of copyright material.

The ethical principles that should guide the authors of scientific articles

The authors who give materials in the electronic scientific journal "History of Science and Biographical Study" are responsible for the innovation and reliability of the results of scientific research; they ensure that research results contained in the submitted manuscript is original. The borrowed fragments or statement must be included with the obligatory indication of the author (s) and document. Plagiarism including unformed quote, paraphrase or assignment of rights to other people's research results are unethical and unacceptable. The authors should not use information received in private, with no public written permission; prevent fabrication and falsification of data. The authors should not provide the manuscripts in journal which are sent to another journals or under consideration, as well as articles published in other publications.